

A photograph of two Downy Woodpeckers perched on a tree trunk. The birds have black bodies with white stripes on their wings and a distinctive red crest. The background is a soft-focus natural setting.

“A Carolina Walk in the Woods”

with Mary Sonis, Wildlife Photographer

Join Mary Sonis,
wildlife photographer
and naturalist,
as she shares her
remarkable photographs
of the wild places
in our towns.

Sunday, March 20th Room A, Chapel Hill Public Library 4:30 pm– 5:30 pm